

Language & Culture Assistants to Spain

Academic year 2024-2025

Language and Culture Assistants is an international program sponsored by the Ministry of Education, Vocational Training and Sports of Spain, managed by the Embassy of Spain's Education Office.

It is aimed at young Hungarian graduates or senior year University students with a high command of the English language.

The language assistants are assigned to primary and secondary State schools in Spain for a full academic year.

The language assistants help and support the classroom teacher in reinforcing the students' oral skills in the foreign language and contribute to develop cultural awareness.

Application process is now OPEN through APRIL, 05. Please, visit our website for further information:
